IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

INA AND FOR THE COUNTY OF YAVAPAI

STATE OF ARIZONA

Plaintiff,

vs.

STEVEN CARROLL DEMOCKER

Defendant.

No. P1300CR20081339

MOTION TO FILE SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM UNDER SEAL

COMES NOW THE DEFENDANT, by and through his attorney undersigned, and respectfully moves this Court to be allowed to file a Supplemental Memorandum to his Memorandum filed on April 11, 2001 under seal;

AS GROUNDS THEREFORE counsel intends to file a Memorandum which will discuss items that have already been sealed. These items, by their very nature, cannot be described in an unsealed proceeding without disclosing the reason for which they were sealed in the first place. Counsel previously filed a Memorandum April 11, 2011, which was able to discuss sealed items in a general sense. The remaining sealed items do not lend themselves to be described in a general sense without disclosing the purpose for which they were originally sealed. Counsel proposes filing a Memorandum under seal. Once the Court makes a decision as to what items, if any, should be unsealed, the Court can then unseal that portion of the sealed Memorandum redacting any portions of the Memorandum that remain under seal.

Pursuant to Ariz. R. Sup. Ct. 123(d), Defendant moves this Court to make a

1 specific finding allowing counsel to file this Memorandum under seal because it will be
2 discussing matters that the court has previously sealed. Counsel has no other means by 3 which to discuss sealed matters other than by under seal. As previously stated in 4 Defendant's Memorandum filed on April 11, 2011, counsel relies on prior counsels'
5 previous positions on all of the sealed matters since prior counsel were present during all of 6 the previous discussions dealing with the sealed matters.
